CIRCA 1936 Executive Meeting Room

“The Porta” – Gateway to insights and outcomes

Porta is the Latin word for gate. It has an anatomical meaning for opening. Porta also denotes something that is movable. Importantly it has significant family origins for the owners of CIRCA 1936. The Spanish heritage of a grandfather who journeyed to north-east Victoria to establish himself and in turn his family. From passing the Sagrada Familia in Barcelona daily to washing and returning bottles to the wineries in the region is a story on its own.

The creation of The Porta comes with a passion for strategic thinking and collaborative outcomes. Enlightenment only comes to those that are willing to allow it - those who wish to enter the gateway. An opportunity to take the ambiance of CIRCA1936 and all its retained history and combine it with the latest in technology and connectivity lends itself to opening of the mind. Allow the immovable to move. To gain insights and outsgights that can truly deliver outcomes that weren't previously considered possible.

Consider your next executive meeting or customer engagement in The Porta and supported by exceptional hospitality offered by CIRCA1936. Allow yourself the time to experience the region and take in the incredible wine region, a taste of whiskey or indulge in cuisine from renowned chefs that have established themselves nearby.

LUXURY ACCOMMODATION & SERVICE - THE HEART OF WHAT WE DO

CIRCA 1936 COROWA

CIRCA 1936, is located on the tree lined main street of Corowa, the “birthplace of Australian Federation”, and housed within the historic art deco environs of the former Rural Bank of NSW. While the bank vault no longer protects the riches that were reaped from the sheep and wheat harvests, CIRCA 1936 does uphold and protect the rich and vibrant story of almost a century in the life of a typical Australian rural town and the stunning architectural features of its heritage building.

As you enter the doors of CIRCA 1936, the stunning pressed metal ceilings and art deco features are only overshadowed by the smiles and warmth of the greeting from the CIRCA staff. Whether it is sitting in The Lounge beside the bank vault or enjoying a glass of wine in the bar that now occupies the bank manager’s office, you can imagine the dreams, aspirations, apprehension, and heartbreak that the walls have witnessed as customers went about their daily finances. These same walls are no longer witness to the anxiety caused by the pound or the dollar, but to a relaxed and refined atmosphere and features of a luxury hotel: design furniture and stunning art pieces, coffee aromas, plump feather pillows on crisp linen, quality amenities and most importantly genuine hospitality and efficient service. We look forward to welcoming you to join us at CIRCA 1936
